The Village Centre Café has been established to provide a welcoming place for people to gather and also to provide a hub for people to connect to the additional support services provided by community groups.

-  Our Chef would be happy to hear your suggestions if you can't find something on the menu – please ask.
-  The Village Centre Café is proud of its attention to detail, and its commitment to using local suppliers wherever possible.
-  All baking is homemade on our premises.
All of our bacon, sausage etc is grilled.
-  Due to the presence of nuts, wheat and other allergens in some of our products we cannot guarantee the absence of these in any of our menu items.
